Journeys to Assisi is not responsible for expenses incurred by retreat members in preparing for a canceled retreat (e.g., non-refundable, advance-purchase air tickets, visa fees, equipment, etc.) or for any necessary additional arrangements should a retreat member have embarked prior to the scheduled departure date.

Specific tier prices for each retreat are indicated in the retreat brochure. Retreats are priced for a minimum of 5 people. If registration falls below that number, we may assess a surcharge of 500.00 per person, for which you will receive a more personalized retreat experience including an hour of individual coaching per person.

Currency Fluctuations

Prices quoted are based on foreign exchange rates in effect at the time retreats are budgeted. We endeavor to maintain our prices as published, but they are subject to change without further notice in the event of significant cost fluctuations, including exchange rate volatility.

LAND COST DOES NOT INCLUDE:

International airfare, flights internal to the retreat itinerary (except for specified retreat); passports, visas, immunizations, insurance of any kind, medical costs, costs of hospitalization or evacuation from remote areas, alcoholic beverages, laundry, excess baggage charges or other items of a personal nature; additional expenses arising from the delay or extension of a retreat due to weather, political disputes, sickness, failure of transportation, or other causes beyond our reasonable control; and tipping. The retreat Cost section of the Detailed Itinerary may indicate further exclusions.

MEDICAL

Our retreats are not very rigorous. Journeys to Assisi assumes no liability regarding provision of medical care. Retreat members are urged to check their insurance coverage to be sure it is adequate. In general, you must be in good health to participate on one of our retreats; it is important that persons with medical problems make them known to us well before departure.

The retreat leader has the right to disqualify any member from the group at any time if considered medically necessary or to avoid endangering the group, or if the participant in question is physically unfit for the rigors of the retreat. Refunds are not given under such circumstances. Retreat members should have a personal supply of any special medications which they may need. It is understood that Journeys to Assisi is not a medical facility and therefore has no expertise nor responsibility regarding what medications or inoculations you and your private physician should decide necessary for your safe participation in the retreat.

EQUIPMENT & BAGGAGE
